ANNOUNCEMENTS.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Belle Onra the clever little English trapeze artist is bringing down the house at every performance with wonderfully skillful work on the swinging bar, Mile Onra's work is away from the average trapeze artist. Gibney and Earl, a funny sketch team, and Earle Gardiner, a character comedian of ability, make up the balance of the vandeville show. No. XIV of the Annimated will be shown today and tomorrow and some of the interesting current events which will be shown morrow and some of the interesting current events which will be shown are the German Fleet in New York harbor and hydroplane flights at Quivsy, France The first release of the new Gem company, a two reel subject will be shown today and tomorrow, also, it is entitled "Princess Lorday.

A refreshing novel story is the one of the Breed today, entitled, "The Guilty Party," which is an Edison production of the highest type. It deals with life in a lumbering camp in the depths of the Maine woods, and introduces, Rody, the very intelligent dog, which is so popular with the motion picture public.

A supperb Indian story, entitled "The Swastika," is another leader and tells a most thrilling story in a finished manner, of the love affairs of a young Indian fellow and girl, with some white settlers in their community, and i sperhaps, one of the best on the bill. The marvelous Pathe Weekly, is here again today, and as usual is brimful of timely incidents that are of international interest. A particular treat national interest. A particular treat on the programme today, is the splen-did singing of Mr. William Wister, the talented concert baritone, who sings "Heidelberg," the song hit from the "Prince of Pilsen," with a snap that demands double encores, as does illustrated song, "You'll Never M Your Mother 'Til Shes' Gone."

THE STAY AT HOME.

Let others go
For pomp and show
Where ocean beats or mountain towe
I'm giad I've got
A homelike spot
To rest in after working hours.

My wife and I. Contented, sigh For nothing that the haunts of pleasure
By sea or lake
Could add to make
Our joy in life of greater measure.

Good food to eat
(Despite the heat,
I love my meals, and so does Kitty).
And not a care
What clothes to wear!
We're quite contented in the city.

Although to stick
Where walls of brick
Encompass one in all directions
Is hard, we've go!
A clock That's what!
We're sponging on my wife's connections

tions! T. A. Daly, in Catholic Standard and Times.

MUSIC. Music hath charms, we all must own,
That unto all of us appeal.
It seemeth somehow to express
The deep smotlons that we feel.
We love its soothing harmonies,
Its sweeping measures, rich and grand,
And ret we do not always
To hear the little German bass

Music can move the inmost seed.

And turn our thoughts to better things.

Its melody can stir our depths And give our aspirations wings.

Its tunnful cadences delight And fill the ear with grateful sound, Yet sometimes we get pervien when The hurdy-gurdy comes around.

Music has magic to exert
Such influence upon the heart,
It lifts us to unwonted spheres,
And holds us from the world apart.
It stirs emotions in us all.
It makes us cry, it makes us laugh,
It thrills our south—for Heaven's make
Won't someone stop that phonegraph?
